CENTRAL REPORT

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
OF
CENTRAL CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL
TOLEDO, OHIO

Foreword

This annual was composed and edited in an effort to present the singular events that have tended to make Central great. We have attempted to follow the various activities undertaken by the student body and faculty during the past.

Within Central's halls, there can be found a spirit of unity governed by the guiding rules of Catholicism. Every action, therein, is motivated by the desire to guide man to his eternal destiny in heaven. The motto, "I am the Alpha and the Omega," which is carved over her entrance, clearly expresses the truth she so thoroughly inculcates in the hearts of her children . . . the beginning and end is God.

Sorrow and joy mingle in the hearts of those leaving her shelter. Thoughts of the enjoyment we had with our friends bring smiles that dry our dwindling tears.

This yearbook will fulfill its purpose if it helps you to remember, now and in the future, the profitable days spent here.

DEDICATION

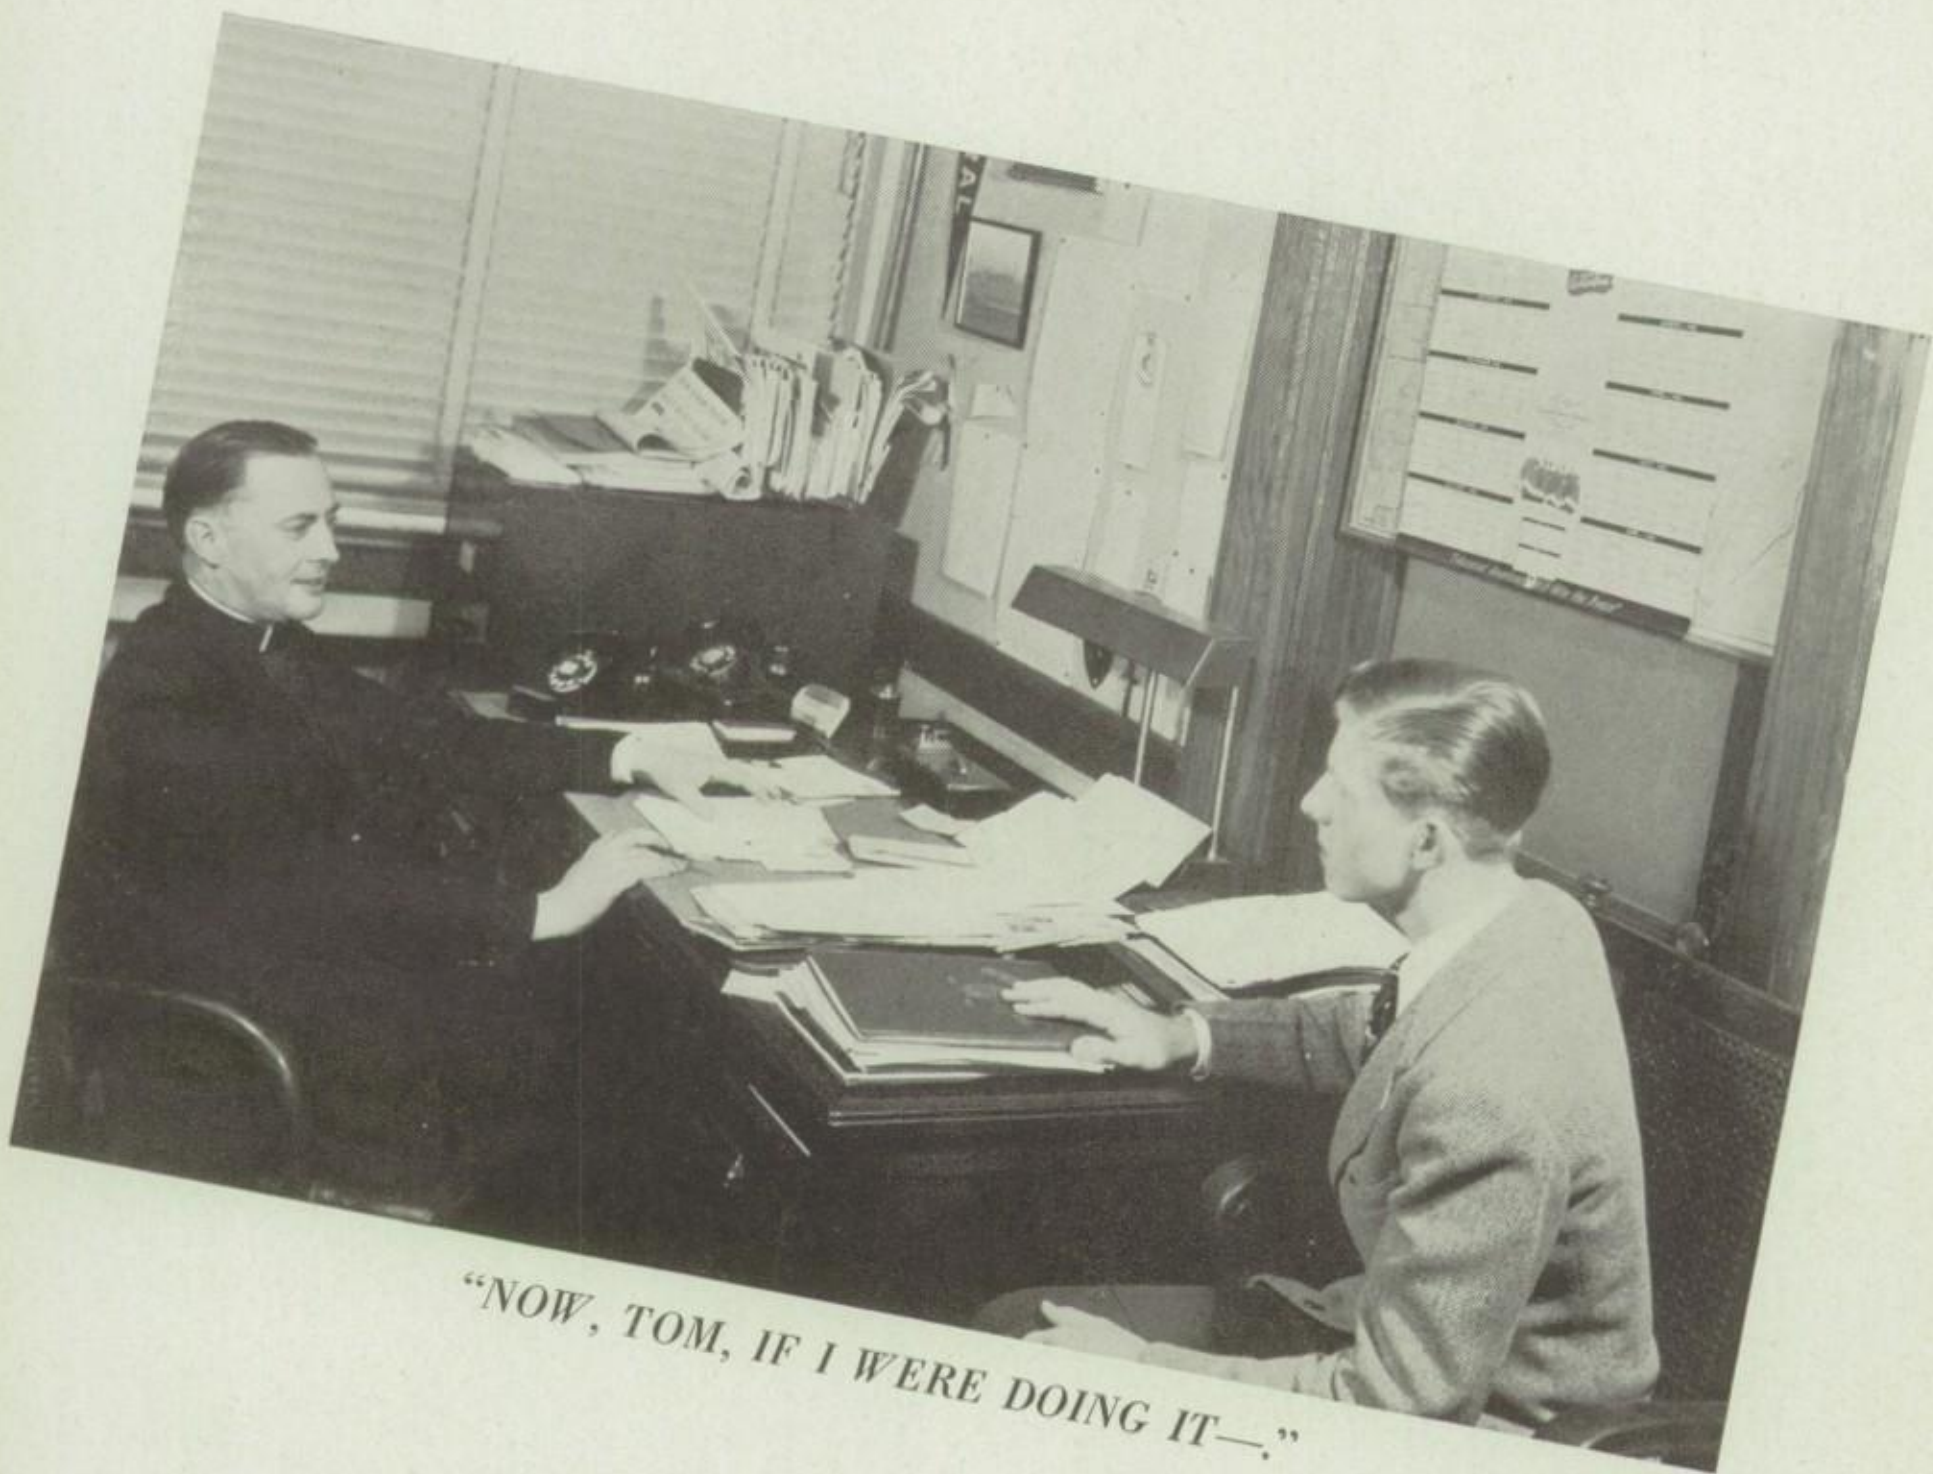

THE REVEREND JOSEPH D. SHENK, A.B., B.S.E.
Assistant Principal

To a friend worth knowing and one who has spent his time in giving valuable help and assistance to the students of Central, we, the graduating class of nineteen forty-three, gratefully dedicate to Rev. Joseph D. Shenk, this, the twenty-third volume of the Centripetal.

Your kindness, your helpfulness, your wise counsels, Father, have not been in vain. We gratefully offer you this memento as slight indication of our boundless esteem and appreciation.

Administration...

THE MOST REVEREND KARL J. ALTER, D. D., LL. D.
Bishop of Toledo

Our most Reverend Bishop has always shown a very personal interest in this, the largest high school in his diocese. We wish to thank him for his fatherly concern in the affairs of Central.

THE REVEREND JOHN L. HARRINGTON, A. M., S. T. B.
Administrator

After six years as assistant principal and two as administrator of Central, we feel sure that Father Harrington knows the boys and girls of C.C.H.S. His care of our spiritual and temporal welfare and his devotion to our education characterizes him as principal par excellence.

VALEDICTORIAN

WALTER MC CAULEY

SALUTATORIAN

MARY SUTTER

OUR FOUR years of scholastic training ended, we, the Senior class, bid farewell to Central. We carry with us the memories of the joyous hours spent in class and also the pleasant social functions in which we participated.

Beginning the year with the election of four very capable class officers, Senior activities soon got under way with the publication of the Centric; the production of two of the finest performances staged at Central "The Late Christopher Bean" and "Dorothy"; and last, but not least, the presentation of the 1943 Centripetal. Following the selection of the valedictorian and salutatorian the year was successfully brought to a close with the retreat and the Bishop's Religion test.

Our gratitude for the excellent guidance given to us by a very capable faculty knows no bounds. We shall try to succeed in everything we undertake so that we may bring credit upon our beloved school.

Alma Mater

I think that I shall never see
Another school so dear to me.
A school where many days are spent
In study, class, and merriment
A school that turns to God each day
And makes a prayer of work and play;
A school wherein God's servants toil
Their patience calming youth's turmoil.
So solidly embedded there
The fruit of faith and trustful care
You stand— our Alma Mater true
In gratitude — farewell to you.

Summary

If the past is any indication of the future, the senior class of next year will be leaders. They have done the work of the past well, and their participation in all school projects and activities has been one hundred per cent. As the seniors sorrowfully depart, they wish the class of nineteen forty-four good luck.

Class Officers

President.....	JACK MURNEN	Secretary.....	JAMES WARRICK
Vice-President.....	PATRICIA RYAN	Treasurer.....	MARY JANE GILMORE

SEPTEMBER, 1942, marked the beginning of the high school career of the largest Freshmen class at Central.

The freshmen showed intelligence and wisdom in choosing class officers. Much of the success of the Freshmen class was due to the leadership of these officers.

They fulfilled their duties as students of Central by keeping up their school work and by co-operating whole-heartedly in all school activities.

MOST IMPORTANT OF ALL—STUDENT SPIRITUAL COUNCIL.

Organization...

Religion...

FROM its infancy, Central Catholic High School has endeavored to instill in its students a firm foundation of Christian principles designed to enable them to safely reach their eternal destiny, and at the same time prepare them for life in society. Therefore, the study of Religion is a required subject during all four years. Those with a complete education, namely, one wherein the spiritual life has been developed, will be competent Catholic leaders in a post-war world.

Besides the religion classes, there are the Catholic Action Cells, the Catholic Literature Committee, the Eucharistic-Our Lady Committee, the Apostolic Committee, the St. Vincent de Paul Society, the St. John Berchmans Society and the St. Hilda Guild which help to prepare the students for their future life. These committees are guided by the Student Spiritual Council, whose aim is the union of all religious committees of the school for the purpose of spreading the Kingdom of Christ, and the personal sanctification of its individual members.

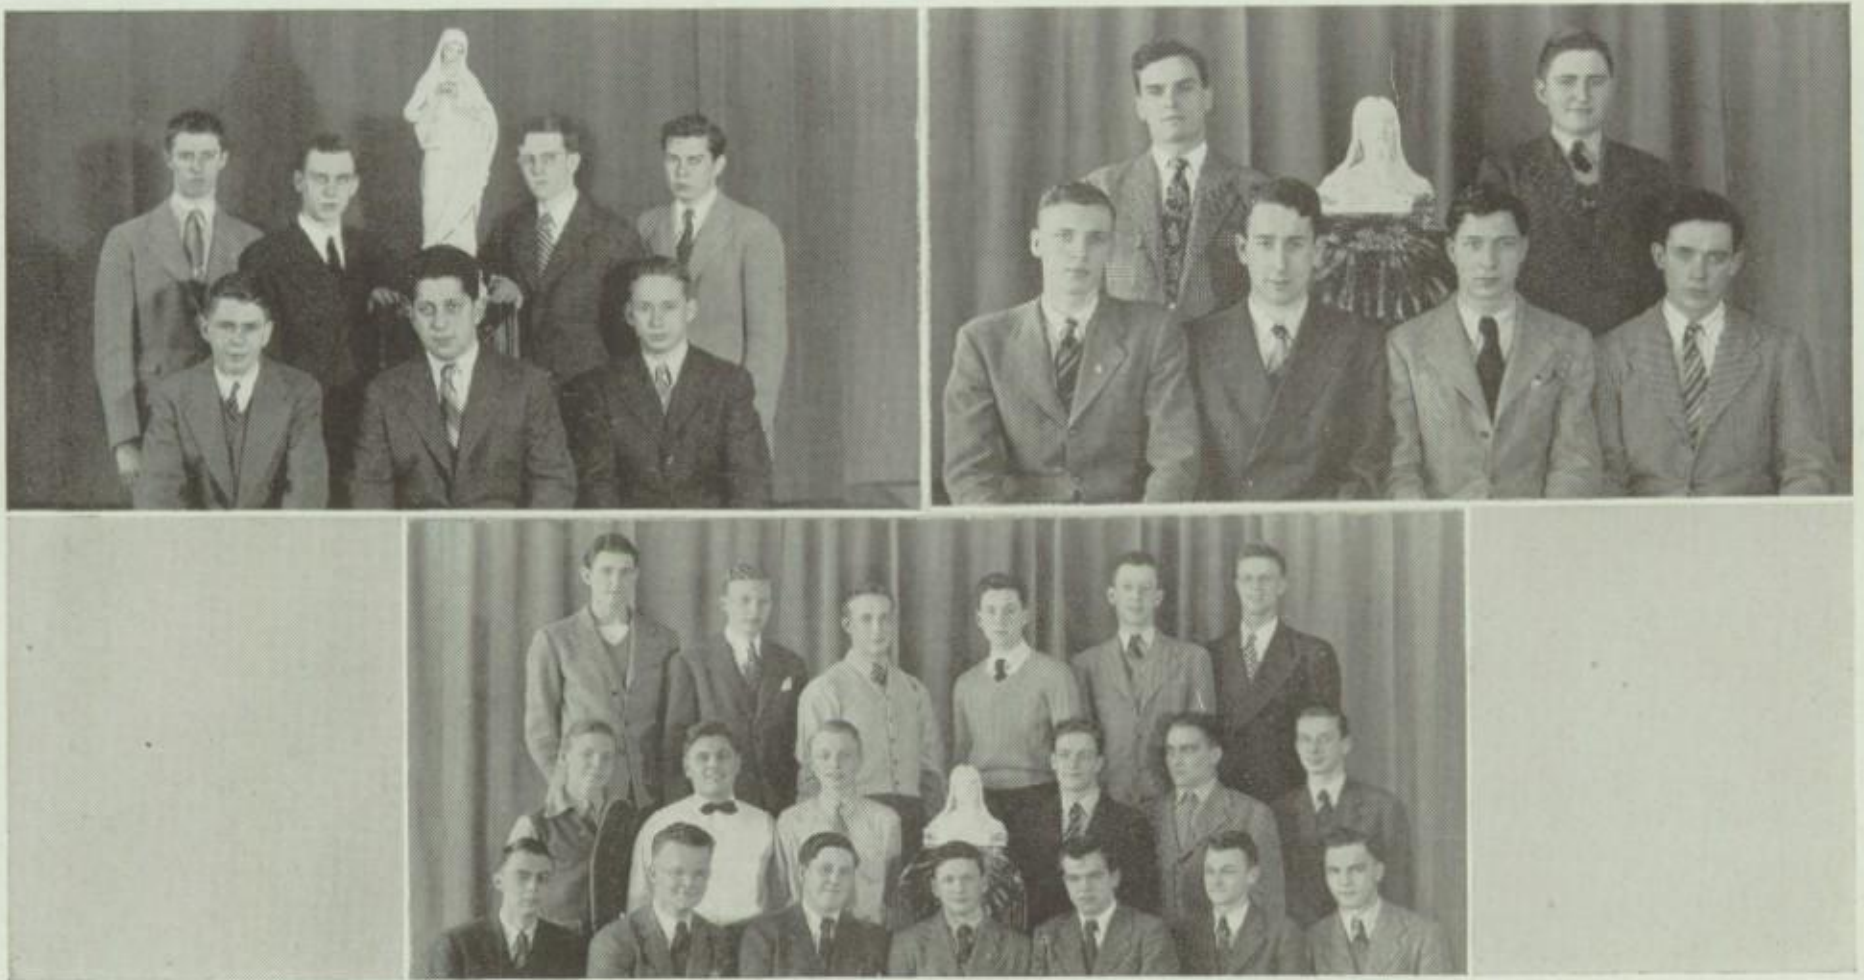

The St. John Berchmans Society, which has over a hundred members, was organized on its patronal feast, November 26, 1926. The purpose of the society is to promote religious vocations, and to give boys the privilege of serving Mass and assisting at various religious ceremonies.

The girls of the St. Hilda Guild prepare the altars for Mass, lay out the vestments and take care of the sanctuary and sacristy.

Father Kofflin and his senior boys of Room 313 pause in their study of the Sacrament of Matrimony to pose for the camera.

STUDENT SPIRITUAL COUNCIL

ST. JOHN BERCHMANS SOCIETY

ST. HILDA GUILD

STUDENT SPIRITUAL COUNCIL

To keep the students informed about good books, magazines and pamphlets is the aim of the Literature Committee.

To see that the "home and foreign mission pot is kept boiling" is the work of the Apostolic Committee.

The St. Vincent de Paul Society is kept busy visiting hospitals and helping the needy of the city.

STUDENT SPIRITUAL COUNCIL

'Twas at this manger Mary Sutter found her Christmas rose.

Go to Mass every day: Say the stations during lent: Participate in the Missa Recita: A vocation from every conference room: These are the slogans which tell the work of the Eucharistic-Our Lady Committee.

"By their works you shall know them."

The Catholic Action Cells are divided into a boys' section and a girls' section. Their aim, to bring the world back to Christ, is accomplished first, by personal sanctification; second, by extending the sphere of Catholic influence among all men.

Religious Honor Roll

Central Catholic High School's Honor Roll consists of those graduates and former students who have dedicated their lives to God as priests and religious.

GLEE CLUB

"WE TAKE
THE LOW
ROAD."

"WE TAKE THE CROSS-
ROAD."

"WE TAKE
THE HIGH
ROAD."

Central's Glee Club this year has ascended another step in the hall of fame. The three-act comedy "Dorothy," the "Civic Sing," and the "Student Talent Assembly" proved that this division of the Music Department is outstanding.

Department

ORCHESTRA

BAND

The orchestra, by playing at the assemblies, the senior class play, the musical comedy, and other activities of the school, has made a name for itself.

Central's band, composed of fifty-five members, thrilled the crowds at the football games last fall with its superb playing and intricate drill formations.

DRAMATICS

The Dramatic Club at Central has again been successful in its annual productions—the Senior Class Play and the Musical Comedy.

This year, Mr. Vincent S. Klein replaced Mr. Eugene L. Miller as director of the Senior Class Play. Sister Mary Patricia, O.S.U., was faculty moderator of the Club.

The Musical Comedy, presented by the members of the Glee Club in collaboration with the orchestra, was directed by Mr. Joseph Sainton. Sister Mary Camillus, O.S.F., acted as faculty supervisor of the Glee Club.

"DOROTHY"

B. C. Stephenson's "Dorothy" was presented here at Central on the evenings of May 7, 8, and 9.

The pastoral comedy-opera related the plan of Sir John Bantam for his daughter's marriage to Geoffrey Wilder. Not agreeing to the desire of her father, Dorothy Bantam and her cousin Lydia Hawthorne decide never to marry.

Shortly after, Geoffrey Wilder, and his friend Sherwood arrive at the Hop-Pole Inn, where Dorothy and Lydia are staying. The attractions of Wilder have a considerable effect on Dorothy; and Lydia, since she has seen Sherwood, is by no means certain of her perpetual spinsterhood. To test the value of the protestations of their adorers, Dorothy gives her ring to Wilder and Lydia hers to Sherwood.

The yarn of the story is then tangled resulting in Dorothy's possession of Lydia's ring, and Lydia's reception of Dorothy's ring.

Eventually John has his way, however, and the story ends happily for the two couples.

"THE LATE CHRISTOPHER BEAN"

The Senior Class Play, "The Late Christopher Bean," a three act comedy written by Sidney Howard, was enacted on the evenings of January 29, 30, and 31, here at Central.

The play unfolds the story of a painter named Christopher Bean, who died in a New England village, leaving only a few dirty canvasses to pay the doctor for his efforts to heal. It was a mild surprise to Doctor Haggett and his family when an old friend of Bean's dropped in and paid Bean's old bill, and only took away a couple pictures as mementoes. It was a bigger surprise when another old friend of Bean's turned up on a similar errand. Moreover, it was overwhelming when they learned that Christopher's daubs were worth a fortune—and how they scurried to find them.

LIBRARY

The library, one of the most helpful departments of the entire school, is always a busy place. From early morn 'til late at night the librarians guide and supervise data for the knowledge seekers who use this room. The students of the Library Club (composed of Senior and Junior girls) assist during the various periods.

Library

ART DEPARTMENT

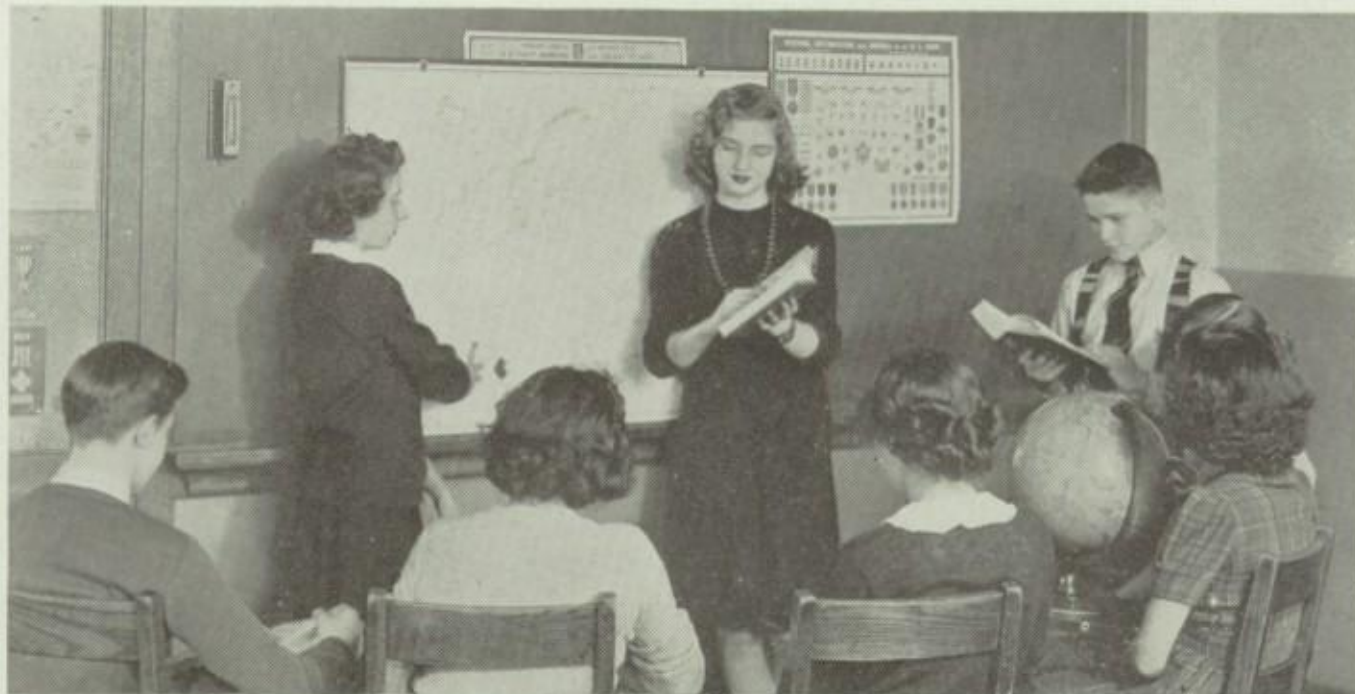

Color charts, posters for various activities, hammered brass bracelets and nick-nacks, free hand pastel work, and pen and ink drawings are just a few of the interesting projects displayed by the girls in the Art Department.

The boys of the Art Department have completed, on the walls of their room, a mural depicting various scenes in the growth of Toledo from the arrival of Bishop Rappe among the Indians down to the erection of the Queen of the Holy Rosary Cathedral.

HISTORY DEPARTMENT

"No, Tommy, the Italian Parliament of 1868, met at Turin, not Rome."

Current topics take over the day.

"Here—not there, is King Tut's (Tutankhamen's) tomb."

Ancient History, offered to freshmen, Modern History, to sophomores, and American History, to seniors, comprise the history courses; the last twelve weeks of the American History course is devoted to civics. With the aid of "Lessons in Liberty" by Clarence Manion, and "Our Government" by James W. Garner and Louise Capen, the seniors acquire an excellent knowledge of our government and its functions.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

*"My Honorable
Opponent, Mr.
Francis, Says—"*

All quiet on the "English" front.

"Mr. Chairman, may I interrupt the speaker?"

English, a required subject, finds every student of Central enrolled in one of its forty-eight classes, held daily. The four-year course aims to teach the student to speak correctly; to write his thoughts accurately; to speak with confidence; to develop an appreciation for good literature. Underclass courses consist of grammar and literary work, while classes in journalism, public speaking, and English Literature are open to the seniors.

LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT

Today, as war draws us closer into its power, knowledge of a foreign tongue is needed more than ever. At Central, the Language Department, well fitted to meet the present demand, offers to the student body Spanish, French, Latin, and German. The courses consist of a study in the grammar, spelling, art, literature and history of these languages.

THE CENTRIC 1942-1943

ELEANOR WELLS

Central's student publication, the Centric, is the work of the Journalism classes. The students edit, publish, and finance the bi-weekly news-sheet. Serving as a mirror of school life, the paper's chief function is the provision of an up-to-date record of student activities.

Senior newswriting classes published thirteen issues of the paper while the Junior English students edited one publication, thus completing the twenty-third volume of the Centric. While only a section of the classes hold positions on the staff, all the news-writing students contribute to the paper with news items that they individually discover among the student body.

THE CENTRIPETAL

Before the seniors depart, they endeavor to preserve in pictures and words a memorandum of their last year in high school. In future years, new concerns will crowd their days, but in their leisure moments, it will be with great pleasure that they will turn to this, their yearbook, to relive their happy high school days.

AERONAUTICS

In cooperation with the Civil Aeronautics Administration a course in aeronautics was added to the curricular activities of the school. This section is under the direction of the Rev. Joseph D. Shenk.

Two classes, consisting of seven girls and fifty boys have learned the intricacies of flying a plane.

The course acquaints the student with the general principles of aviation and navigation. Although there are no facilities for actual experience in flying, practical application of the theories taught are gained by the use of an airplane donated by the drafting class.

In the above picture we catch a glimpse of Father Shenk explaining to Robert Gorny, Walter Schweickert, Fred Abair, William Bothe, Robert Burlage, Rollin Nusbaum, Arthur Badger, Joseph Flanigan, and Richard Kwiatowski the application of the aeronautical principles by the use of an airplane as a model.

Enrollment in the various Mathematics classes this year has shown an increase of four per cent over last year. Of the 1074 mathematically-minded students, all 518 freshmen were registered for either Algebra or General Mathematics, giving this class the lead. The sophomore class held second place with eleven more boys this year, while the girls tied last years record. Classes in Advanced Algebra and Plane Geometry claimed 203 juniors. For the first time in the history of the school there were three class periods of Solid Geometry and Trigonometry. These classes totaled 104 students, the boys outnumbering the girls, 5 to 1.

MECHANICAL DRAWING DEPARTMENT

Through the efforts of Rev. G. W. E. Dunne, the Mechanical Drawing Department acquired an eight-cylinder, vacuumatic drive 1940 model Hudson motor from the Hudson Corporation for use in the Senior Class project.

After complete sketches of it had been drawn by the class, it was dismantled and separate sections distributed among the Senior and Junior group to be drawn and identified.

Upon completion of the work on these parts, the following boys were chosen to produce elevation drawings of the exterior views:

Horizontal View.....	Francis Langenderfer
Left Elevation.....	Joseph Ferraro
Right Elevation.....	Dale Frische
Front Elevation.....	John Gimple
Rear Elevation.....	John Ferstle

Andrew Flory and Albert Ferris did the work on the longitudinal and cross-section and front cross-section, respectively.

The Freshman and Sophomore mechanical drawing classes received instruction in fundamentals, rules and drawings. Descriptive geometry is the first subject taught and is followed by projection, surface development, triangulation and cabinet drawing. These future draftsmen then learn three kinds of perspective drawing—interior, exterior and “triconjugate,” the latter devised by Mr. Carter. Architectural work is included in the perspective drawing. The drawing of machine parts and tracing (which is the start of Junior and Senior work) is taught at the end of the course.

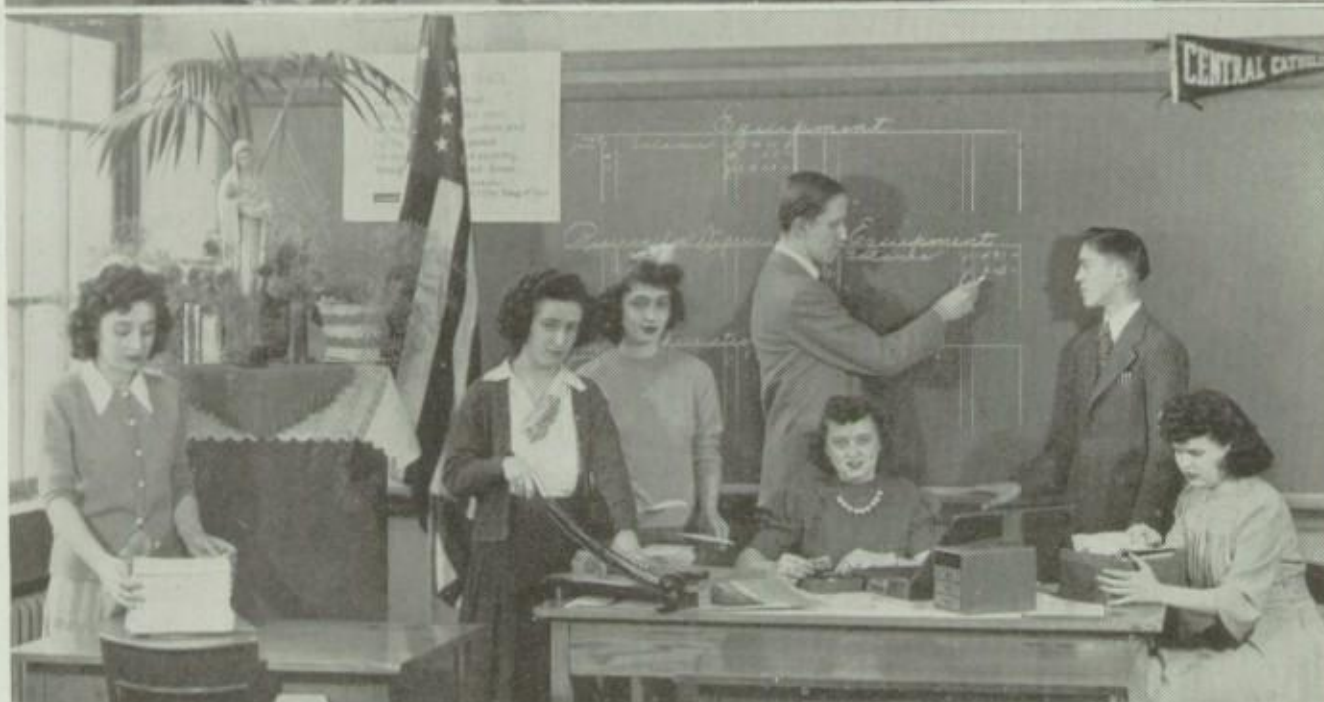

Father Dunne and his boys, at work sketching the eight-cylinder, vacuumatic drive, Hudson motor, pause for a pose.

COMMERCE DEPARTMENT

SHORTHAND

To read rapidly, to write perfectly, and to take dictation accurately is the goal of students of the shorthand classes. Those who fulfill these requirements are eligible for membership in the Order of Gregg Artists and in the Order of Artistic Typists.

BOOKKEEPING

The bookkeeping classes learn the principles of budgeting, economics, taxation and business law. Through the actual handling of papers, records, and reports the students receive an understanding of business and its operation.

TYPING

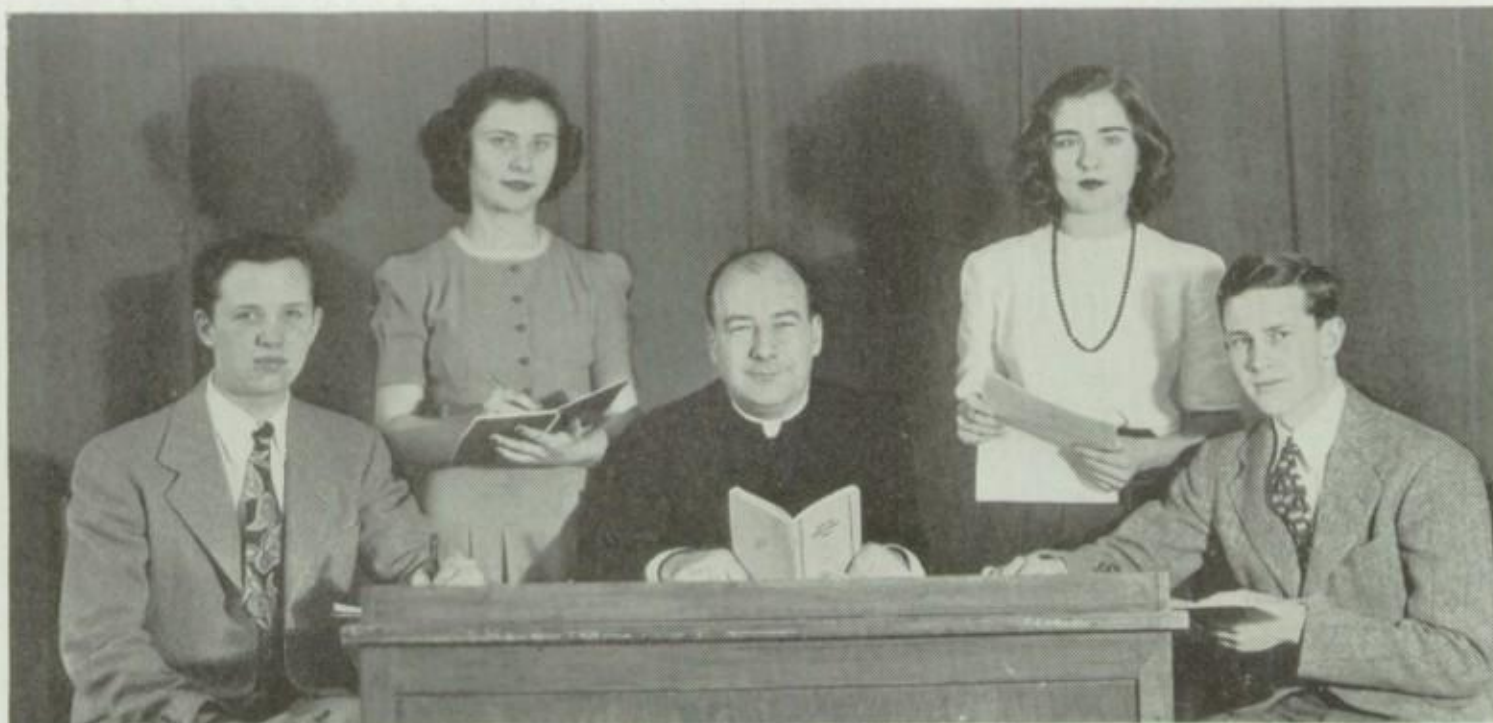

In the typing classes it is speed with accuracy that counts. The aim of each student is to type from thirty to forty words per minute with less than five errors. Gold pins and certificates for the Gregg Competent Typing Tests are the coveted awards.

HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT

*They sweep and clean and cook and mend,
And to the sick their service lend.*

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, under the supervision of Rev. J. D. Shenk, and the Executive Committee, has carried on an outstanding program during the past year. Its main purpose is to promote unified school spirit by various activities, such as color day, school dances, tag day, the planning and management of Parent-Teacher meetings, and the maintenance of the Hall and Traffic Patrols.

AMERICAN LEGION PRESENTATION

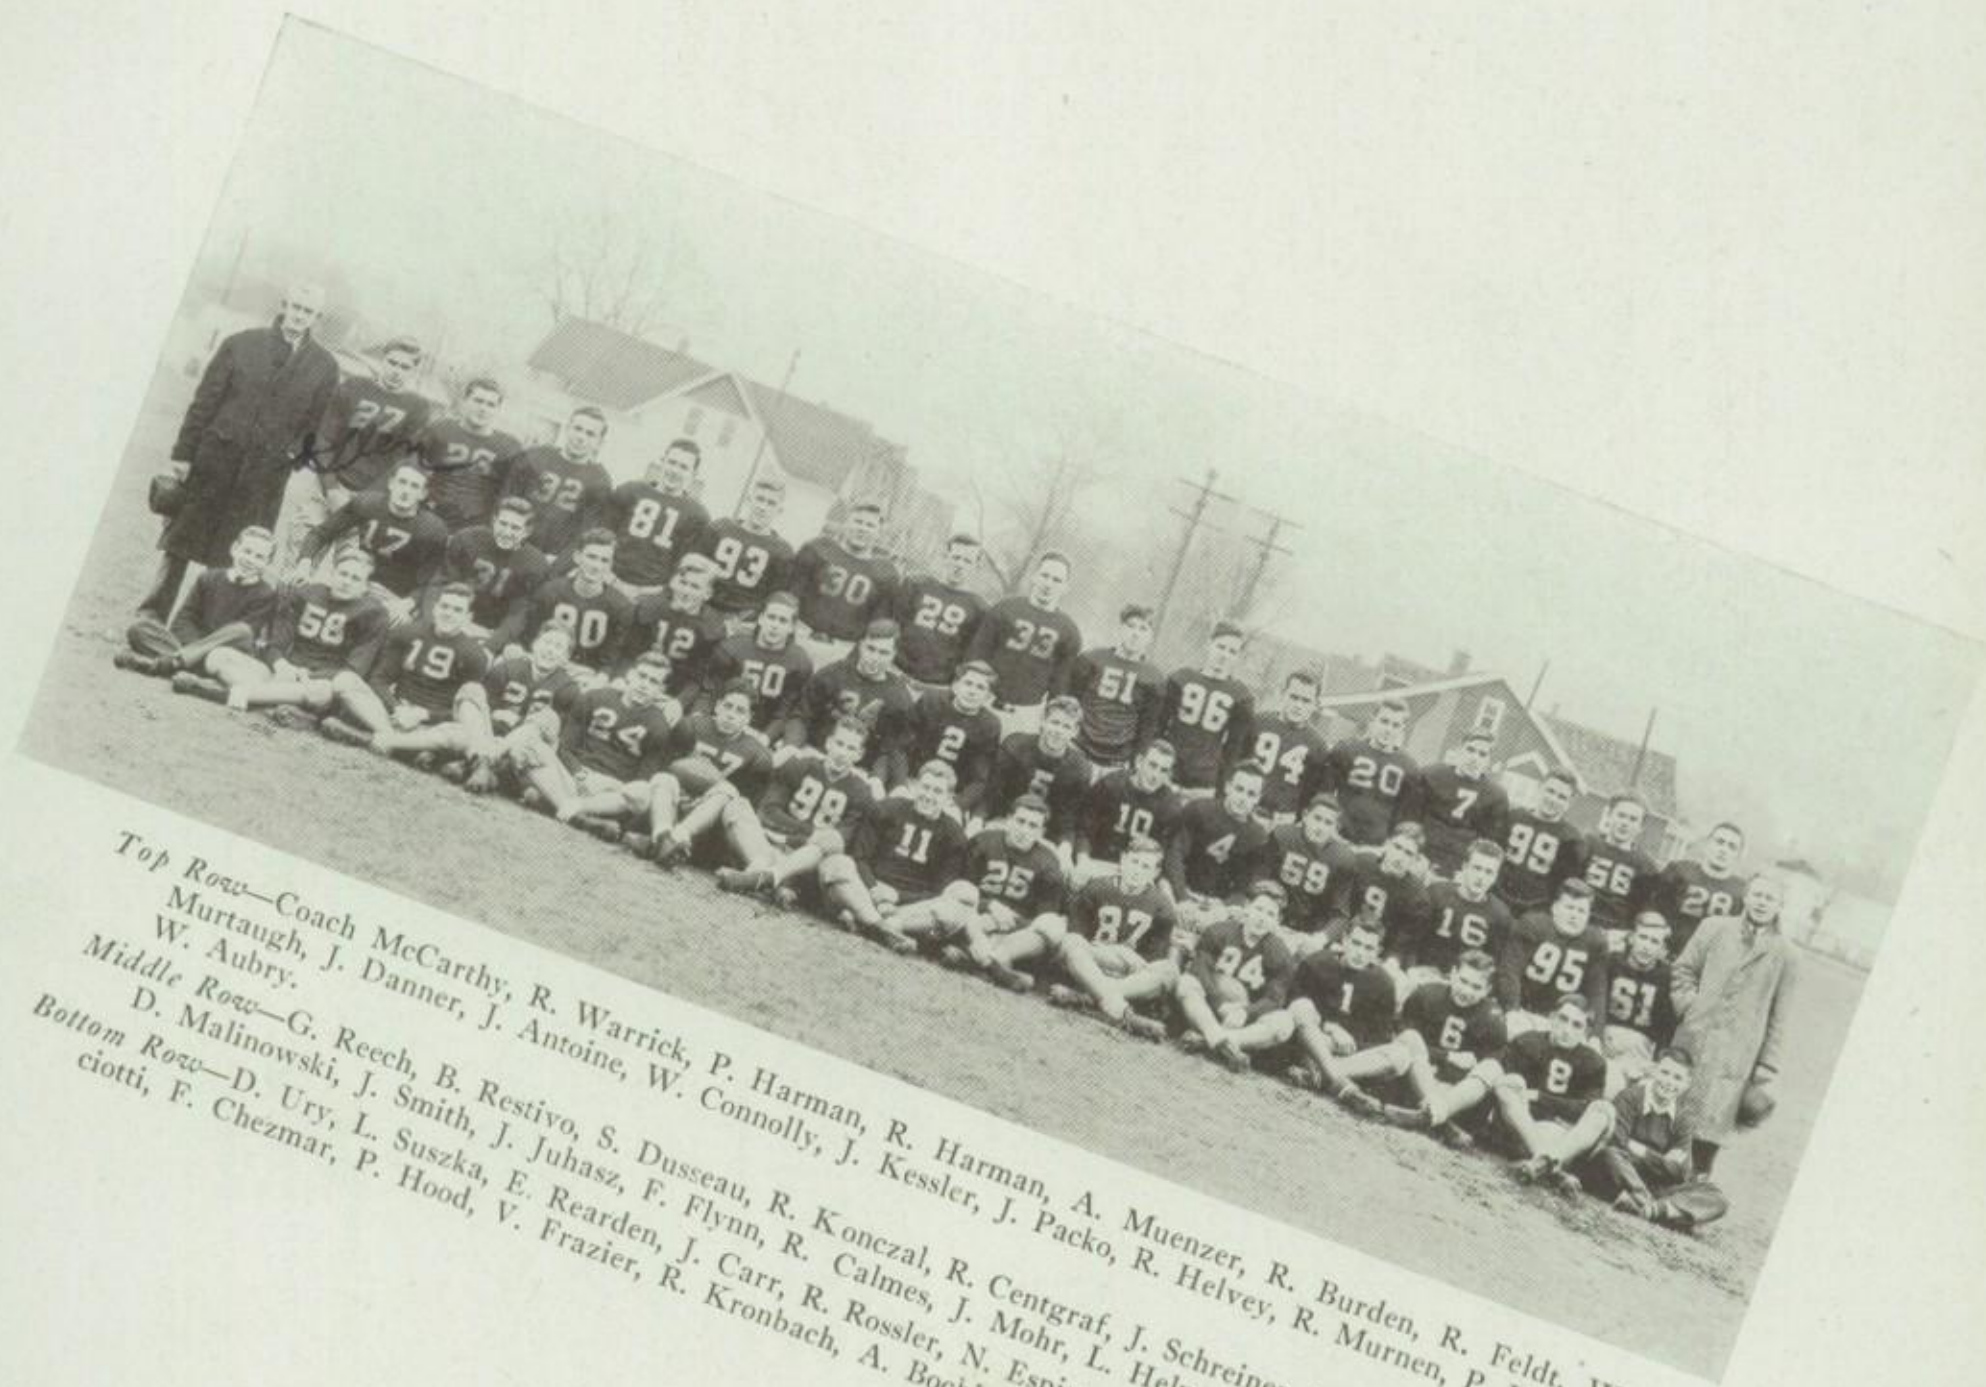

At an outstanding assembly sponsored by the Student Council, the service flag, pictured above, was presented to the school by the Lucas County Council of American Legion Auxiliary.

CATHOLIC CHRONICLE CRUSADE

The Catholic Chronicle Crusade, another activity conducted under the auspices of the Student Council, was a great success. Returns, due to the advance in price of the Chronicle, surpassed last year's amount by $504.50. The leaders of the various Conference Rooms are pictured above. The three individual high-pointers were Patricia Weis, Anthony Bosch and George Werner.

FOOTBALL

MR. JAMES McCARTHY

Mr. McCarthy

Mr. James McCarthy, director of athletics and head football coach, is leaving Central to take up his commission in the United States Navy.

A graduate of the class of '29, Mr. McCarthy returned to Central in 1936 as assistant football coach to Al Sacksteder and a year later became head coach of the cage team. Under his guidance the cagers grabbed the city championships and were runner-ups in the district tourney in 1938.

Mr. McCarthy attended St. Louis University where he played football. From there he transferred to Dayton University and starred in football, baseball, and basketball.

His name will linger in the memory of not only Central, but all of the sports-world of Toledo.

Mr. Bondy

The former Central and DeSales football star, Mr. Bondy, came back to Central this year as coach of the lightweight and freshman football teams. The lightweight basketball team was also placed under his tutorship.

Mr. Bondy coached his grid team through an undefeated season to win the Freshman City League Championship.

Good luck to Mr. Bondy in his future undertakings as football coach.

MR. LAWRENCE BONDY

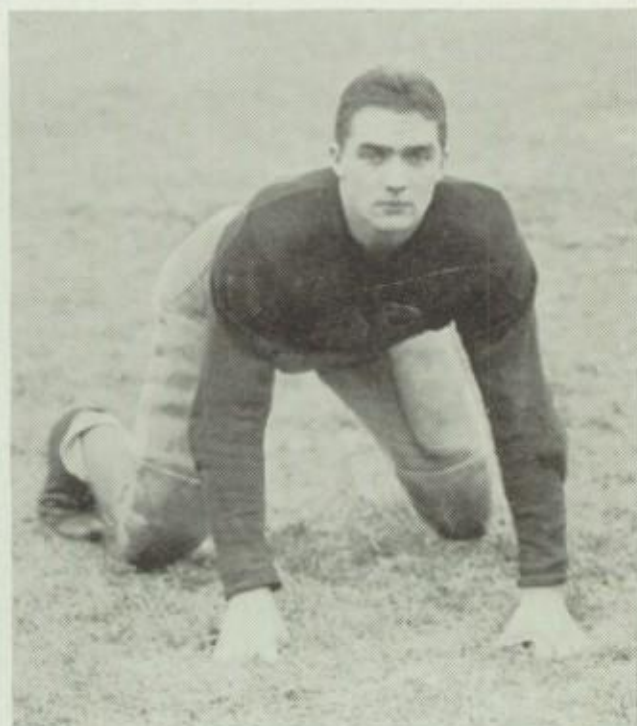

DR. I. COLLINS

Dr. Ivor Collins

Performing his duty as the gridder's physician, Doctor Ivor Collins, a former graduate of Central, has taken excellent care of the boys' physical condition for the last four years. Through his interest as a true friend and alumnus, "Doc" has helped to build up the morale of the team and encouraged them to play their best when opposition was strongest. It is our wish that Doctor Collins will be with us again next year to urge the team to even greater victories than those of preceding years.

MR. A. TSCHERNE

BASKETBALL

This year coach Adolph Tscherne's varsity basketball team stepped into some fast city scholastic league competition and came out with a partial hold on third place. The 1943 team had only four lettermen back from the team that blazed a glorious trail to runner-up to the state championship in 1942. No one can say that our coaching staff doesn't turn out a group of boys who are fighting every minute of every game.

Mr. Adolph "Dutch" Tscherne, after coaching football and basketball at Central for five years, resigned his position on Central's faculty to enter into the defense of our country.

"Dutch" graduated from Central in '34 and then entered Dayton University. From there, he took over the coaching duties at St. Wendelin's, Fostoria, before returning to his "Alma Mater" in 1939, as baseball coach and mentor of lightweight football and basketball.

In 1940, he was made head basketball coach. Last year, 1941, was the most successful year in Central's cage history; and this year, "Dutch's" teams lost only eight games while winning forty-eight.

Mr. Tscherne will be sorely missed, but his name will linger in the memory of Central students.

JOSEPH JACOBS
(Jumpin' Joe)
Senior Forward

"Joe" sunk those buckets and his terrific ball handling kept the fans on edge every game.

PAUL STUTZ (King)
Senior Guard

A great fellow under the basket, and a "Never Say Die" basketball player. He lived up to expectations in this, his first year of basketball at Central.

JAMES KUEBLER
(Wyndol)
Senior Forward

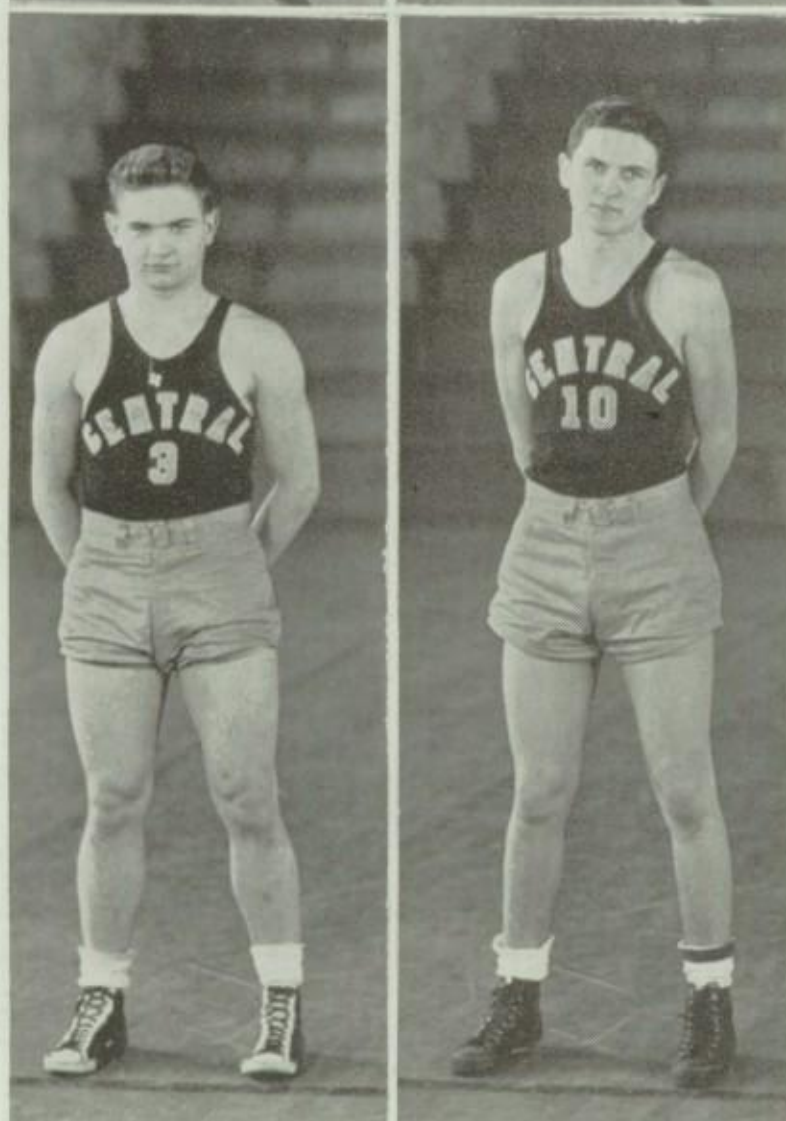

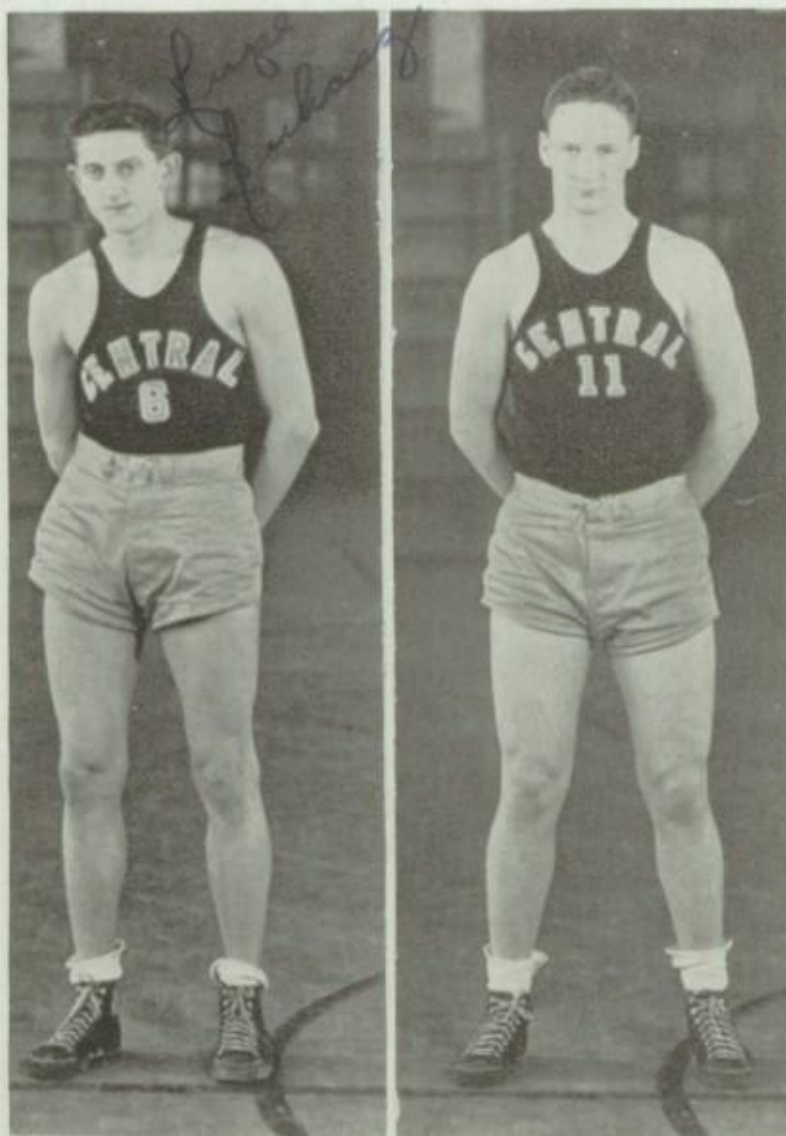

Jim's experience gained in the CYO league, merited for him a position on the varsity and proved a great asset to the team.

CARL NEEB
(Wild Bill)
Senior Forward

Bill, an all around ball player, was one of the deadliest shots on the team. His foremost ability was keeping cool when the heat was on.

BASKETBALL

JOHN JUHASZ JOHN DANNER
ROBERT KRONBACK RAYMOND MURNEN

JOHN JUHASZ (Juke) Sophomore Guard

"Jukes" ability to score points and keep the game moving fast will be a big help towards winning the city championship next year.

JOHN DANNER (Harpo) Junior Center

Harpo, playing his second year of varsity basketball, proved, by his great ability to control the backboard on both offense and defense, to be one of the main factors in Central's "fire-wagon" brand of basketball.

ROBERT KRONBACH (Foggey) Junior Guard

Bobby always seems to be in the right place at the right time. He goes in there with only one intention and that is to win the ball game, and that helps a great deal in making any kind of a ball player.

RAYMOND MURNEN (Handsome) Junior Guard

The flashy ball-handling and accurate shooting of Ray made him one of the main-stays in this year's team. His knowledge of basketball made him an outstanding Court-General.

BASKETBALL

NINO ESPINOZA

Nino, a very fast and clever ball player, will be of great assistance to the Fighting Irish for the next two seasons.

Knobby was always in there playing good, hard basketball. He will be back next year to give a good account of himself.

RAYMOND HELVEY
(Bull)

Ray is a capable man under the bucket and can be counted on to help the team out of the tough spots.

LIGHTWEIGHT TEAM

Top Row—Bob Warrick, John Mullen, Dick Bernhardt, John Packo.

SPORTS

CHEER LEADERS

Centralites hollered and cheered with might and main when Bill McVicker, Don Olsen, Jerry Donahue, and Buzzy Heizelman called for a clamor to set the team moving with a new spirit.

The four leaders led fans and students in cheers that echoed through the stadiums. Together with the band and drum majors, they formed an important part of Central's gridiron pageantry.

MANAGERS

Donald Ury, Joseph O'Brien, Robert Thimmes, Paul Harmon.

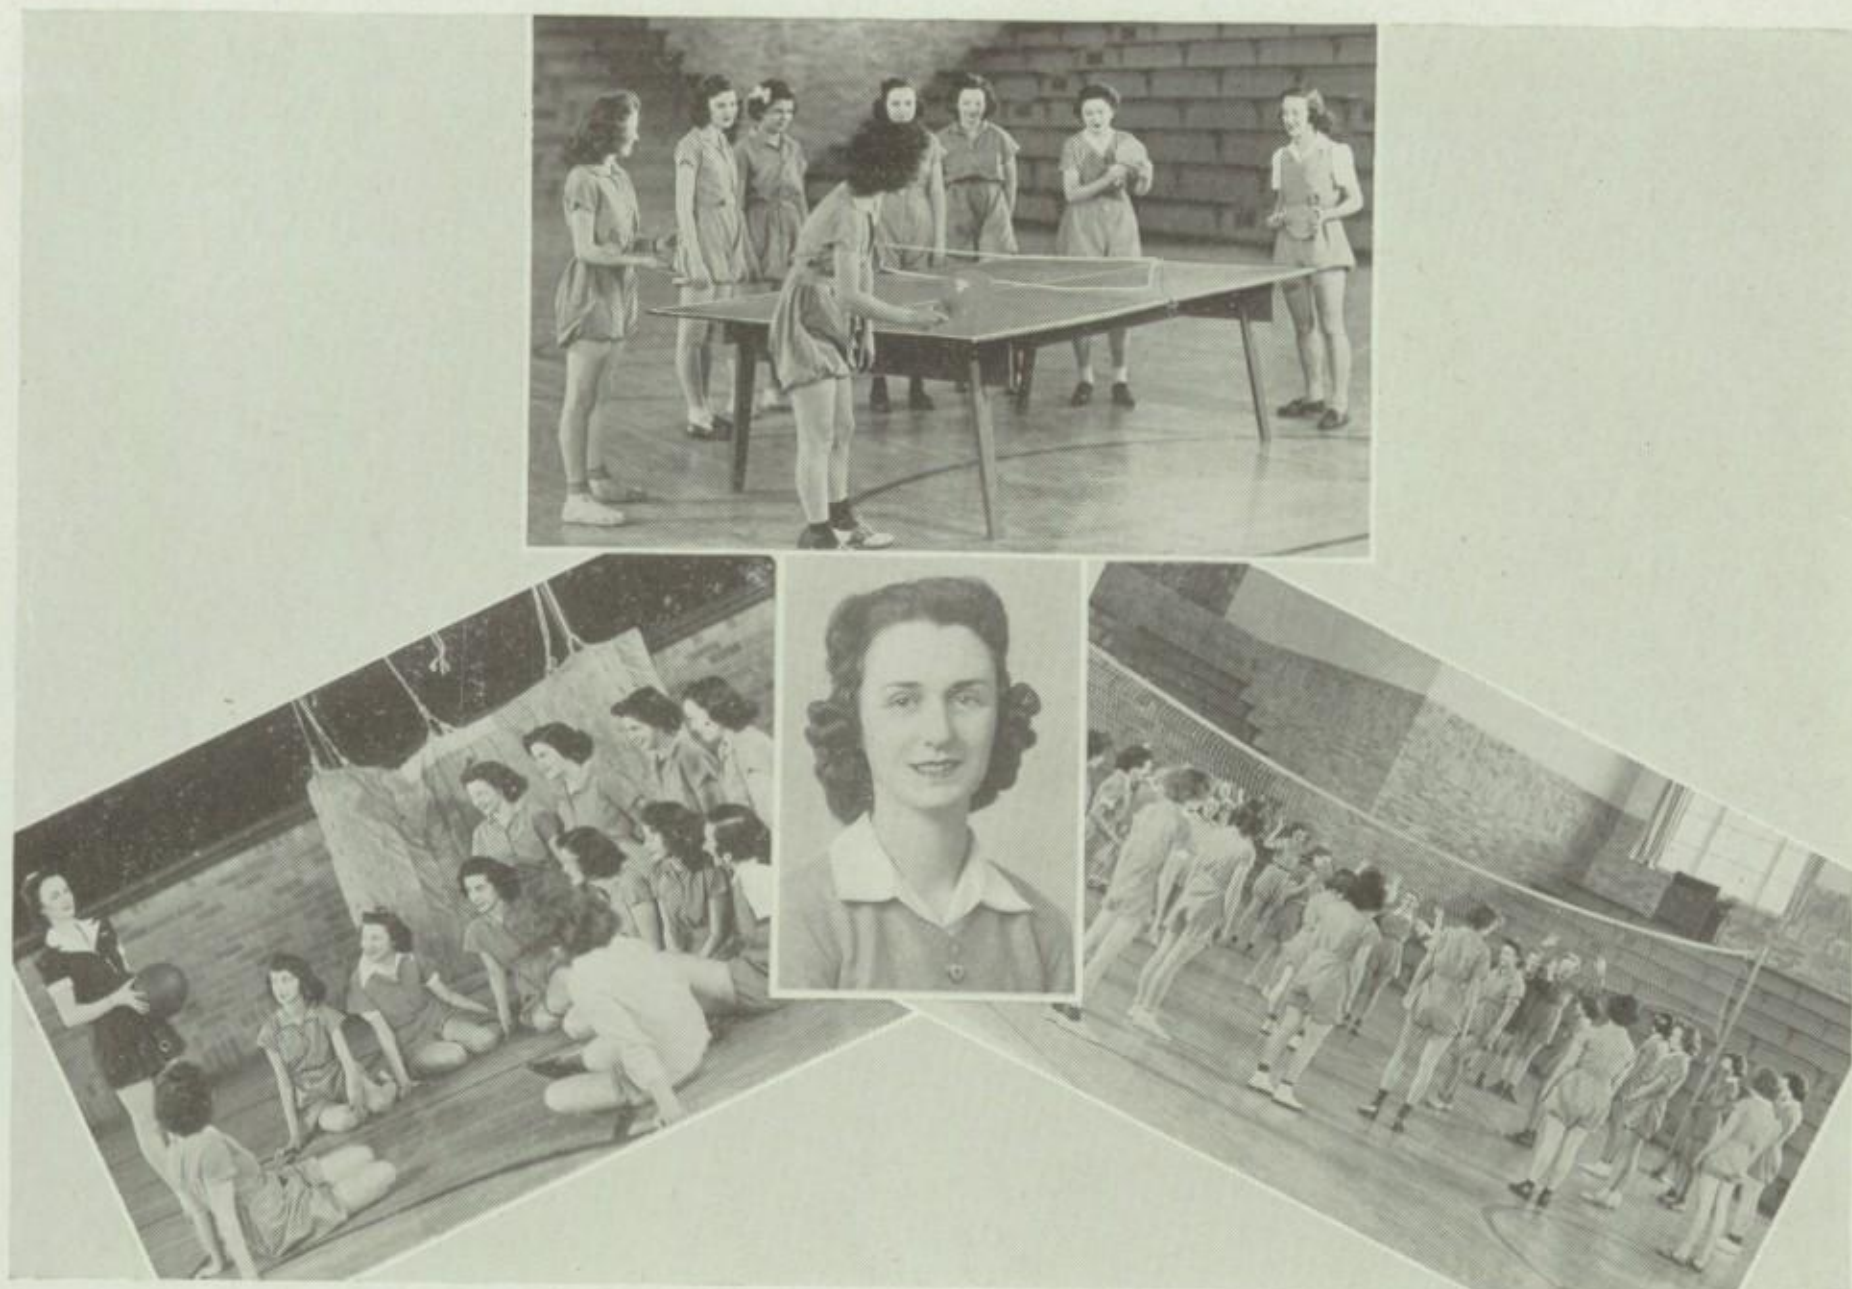

The managers are the boys behind the scene, who get no praise or credit for the tremendous amount of work they do. Few people realize that they take care of countless little things that are necessary to the players, who readily recognize their importance and appreciate it. We would like to give these boys a word of praise and thanks for their loyal and unselfish work.

BOWLING

Father Schmit and his twelve Central bowlers have maintained this year the consistently high scores of Central's past keglers. In the city league, the team figured among the top rankers.
